

THE GRACE COURSE
CLASS 6: CONTINUING THROUGH CONTROVERSY

Class #6 Main Points:

- The Gospel IS grace and Grace is the Gospel
- Strange, ineffective teaching is that which is not according to grace
- Truth is on the side of grace
- The bible urges us to continue, stand strong, and be firm in grace
- The biggest controversy about grace is that it gives license to sin, which is false
- False grace rejects authority and encourages a totally feelings-based faith
- Prophets longed to see what it was like to live in Grace
- The enemy will constantly try to undermine this message in your mind
- Grace must stay in the context of relationship - you're free from Law to be joined to Jesus

How would you explain the error of universalism to someone?

How have you seen this message of grace undermined in your own life?

Going forward, how do you see yourself continuing and standing firm in grace?

Have you ever seen the grace of God turned into licentiousness? How so?

Wrestle with the difficult passage in Hebrews 10 - especially verse 29. What do you believe it is communicating?
